- Great role model for administrators—specific examples of how to be innovative and successful.
- He is a man who truly believes in his students and teachers. How lucky they are!
- What a dedicated man! If I weren't so happy in my current position, I would consider applying to Lincoln School.
- Could you be a successful with 33/I in K-8 w/about $5000 per students and 1/5 of community donations?
- We needed to hear more. He should have spoken on day one, not day 5. Thanks.
- Should have had Mr. Albano all day. Super information! Great speaker.
- The presentation was great. You have given one s push to do a better job. We are going to apply some of the successful plans that you have presented.
- Outstanding! He should have had MORE time!
- Great inspiration!
- WOW!
- Wonderful! WOW!
- WOW!
- There is hope!
- When and how can we get beyond pockets of excellence?
- Unfortunately, we had to leave at 9:00 a.m. in order to return for a Board of Education meeting in Stamford.
- Fantastic! It would have been wonderful to have had the entire day with him. Very heart warming and energizing to see that our vision for public education can come true.
- To hear more would have been great. You have inspired me to do even more. Thanks.
- I gain more insight about facing and dealing with situations. I wished he could have had more time. Excellent presentation.
- Very interesting! Boy does that man have a lot of energy! God Bless!
- Excellent! Have more of him throughout conference possibly for small group talks.
- Motivational. Good way to close out an excellent conference.
- What an inspiration! Brought things to the level of the classroom and the child.
- He should have been earlier to set a focus for the conference/team discussions.
- It's too bad everyone couldn't hear him because they had to travel. NEA to see that "it" can be done somewhere.
