

Your School Community has received an...

Exclusive Invitation

Carnegie Hall

Isaac Stern Auditorium
(main concert hall)

Up to two (2) children free with paid adult admission!

Friday, June 12, 2009, 8:00 p.m.

International Award-Winning Classical Pianist

Katya Grineva

Program:

Ravel – Bolero
Debussy – Clair de Lune
Chopin – Nocturne op. 27 no 2
Bloch – Poems of the Sea

Program:

Schubert-Liszt - Swan Song
Granados – “Playera”
Spanish Dance
Piazzolla – 2 Tangos
* plus others

“...liquid....dreamlike...” The New York Times

Ms. Grineva, an International Award-Winning, Russian born Classical Pianist who has played throughout the world for presidents and dignitaries will perform her eleventh concert at Carnegie Hall. Her vision for this concert is to expose children to the “beauty and benefits of classical music.” The works of great masters like Chopin, Schubert-Liszt, Beethoven, Schumann, Bloch, Ravel, Debussy, Piazzolla and others will be performed.

Through the generosity of corporate and private sponsors, tickets for this magnificent evening are free for up to two children (6 – 16 years old) when accompanied by a paying adult. (Tickets offered are the very best in Carnegie Hall – no balcony!)

Katya as young child

Moscow 1977

Ticket Prices

Adult Tickets:

- $55.00 Orchestra/First Tier Boxes
- $35.00 Second Tier Boxes
- $25.00 Second Tier Boxes
- * Tier Boxes seat up to eight (8)

Up to two children are free with paid adult admission!

Tickets available on a First Come, First Served basis!

Order Today!

Tickets can be purchased at Carnegie Hall or through your school/organization if an order form appears on the back of this flyer.

Performance at Carnegie Hall
Visit www.katyagrineva.com

Photo: Jennifer Taylor

Call Carnegie Hall Charge at 212.247.7800
Order tickets online at www.carnegiehall.org

Turn Over for Group Order Form if participating →

Or contact Tara Gilvar at 908-436-8887 (tgilvar@earthlink.net)

Honorary Chairpersons: George C. Albano, Educational Reformist www.georgealbano.com
Rabbi Morris W. Borzilai, Sinai Free Synagogue - Westchester